What is the purpose for the Lord in the various situations of our lives? When the world is so difficult and struggle of degrees seems to be around daily, is our purpose for Him to get peace, comfort strength to get through moment? Is the motivation hearts to obtain something from Him, some special touch that will truly make circumstance better? We are certainly things that Father can and will provide, I believe the Father desires something else from which all the rest flows.

Hosea admonishes the people to not only know the Lord, but to press on knowing Him regardless of our present circumstances. The motive for coming to the Lord should always first be for the sake of knowing Him more. When we need peace, press on to know Him. When we need comfort, press on to know Him. When we need strength, press on to know Him. Our relationship with the Lord must be founded on to first press on to know Him more. In fact, when our focus is to know Him more, we find our every need being met as an overflow of this.

When our purpose for reading His word is not first to get answers, but to know Him more, we will come face to face with the answer we need. When our purpose for prayer is not first to declare our thoughts, but to know Him more, we will see our prayers were heard and responded to in His love and grace. When our purpose for worship is not first to feel joy and peace, but to know Him more, I will experience His presence that brings joy and peace.

To know the Lord more should always be our first motivation in coming to Him.

MISSIONARY Highlight

Ian & Heidi Fry – EDEN MINISTRIES

Dear White Hill Church of the Brethren Family,

Greetings from the United States! We wanted to send a warm update to our beloved church family back home and share a bit of what our journey has looked like over the last few months.

After arriving in the States on May 6th, we enjoyed some wonderful, refreshing family time and then we made our way to The ARK Christian Ministries at the end of May. It has been a whirlwind of ministry and connection ever since!

On the Preaching Front: Ian has had the privilege of preaching several times, and as a family, we have been keeping a fast and prayer pace—sharing with campers anywhere from 3 to 7 times a week, mostly Monday through Thursday.

Fun and Adventure: The kids are absolutely thriving. They are tackling high ropes courses, bravely facing the giant water slide, and mountain biking.

Family Time: Together, we've all been enjoying swimming, fishing, and building deep connections with the incredible staff and campers here.

We will be stationed here at The ARK through the end of July, though the weekends this month are packed with travel.

Even while we are across the ocean, our hearts are close to home. We are incredibly encouraged by the reports we are receiving from Zimbabwe. The team back home is standing strong, and the harvest is coming in incredibly well. We are bursting with gratitude for God who is sustaining and blessing the ministry in our absence.

Your prayers and partnership mean the world to us—thank you for your continued support. We love and appreciate every single one of you.

Finally, we want you to know that we are holding you close in our hearts as a congregation. We celebrate the beautiful life and mourn the passing of Sister Sharon Chappell right alongside you. We are sending you love, comfort, and prayers especially to Dave, Tracey, and the kids during this time.

May God bless you all richly until we see you again!

With all our love,
Ian and Family
